Construction Completed on 95,962 SF Industrial Space in Bensenville

Bensenville, IL – On August 7, 2018, a grand opening and ribbon-cutting ceremony was held at a newly constructed industrial space, located at 350 N. York Road in Bensenville.

Village President Frank DeSimone and Liberty Property Trust's Vice President Neal Driscoll cut the ceremonial red ribbon to celebrate completion of the 95,962 SF divisible industrial space which is now available for lease in Bensenville. This property features 32' ceilings, 20 exterior depressed docks, 113 vehicle parking spaces, and an ESFR sprinkler system. A large number of industrial brokers and local business owners were present during the event.

Attendees also included, Bensenville Chamber of Commerce President Pete Gallagher, Village Manager Evan K. Summers, Liberty Property Trust's Vice President Neal Driscoll, Village President Frank DeSimone, and Liberty Property Trust's Senior Director Matt Neumann.

"With Bensenville's proximity to highways, railways and O'Hare International Airport, developments like this one will allow growing businesses access to one of the premier industrial parks in the United States," said Village President Frank DeSimone.

About Bensenville: Bensenville is conveniently located just 20 miles west of downtown Chicago in DuPage County, adjacent to O'Hare International Airport, surrounded by major expressways, and boasts several public transportation options including a Metra commuter station. With plenty to offer both families and businesses like brand new schools, great parks, and special events year round, Bensenville really is the "Gateway to Opportunity."
