Bob Schillerstrom Gives Western Access Update to Bensenville Village Board

Bensenville, IL – On September 11, 2018, Chairman of the Illinois Tollway, Bob Schillerstrom, provided an update on the Elgin-O'Hare Western Access Project relevant to the Village of Bensenville.

As Chairman of the Illinois Tollway, Schillerstrom provided a number of updates including the I-490/I-90 interchanges and O'Hare Airport perimeter fence and road relocation. Schillerstrom also reported that the initial Western Access project is expected to be completed by the end of 2025 and is projected to create 65,000 new sustainable jobs.

"Thank you Chairman Schillerstrom for taking the time to meet with the Village Board. We look forward to the completion of this project and experiencing the benefits Western Access will bring to Bensenville," said Village President Frank DeSimone.

About Bensenville: Bensenville is conveniently located just 20 miles west of downtown Chicago in DuPage County, adjacent to O'Hare International Airport, surrounded by major expressways, and boasts several public transportation options including a Metra commuter station. With plenty to offer both families and businesses like brand new schools, great parks, and special events year round, Bensenville really is the "Gateway to Opportunity."
