Ribbon Cutting held for Joey C's Deli in Bensenville

Bensenville, IL – On October 11, 2018, Village President Frank DeSimone and business owner Ray Samlow cut the ceremonial red ribbon to celebrate the grand opening of Joey C's Deli located at 18 S. Addison Street in Bensenville. Attendees included members of the Bensenville Chamber of Commerce, Village Trustees, Bensenville staff, and family and friends.

Formerly occupied by Mario's Deli II, Joey C's is the new occupant of the space. Joey C's is named in honor of Joe Cesario who owned and operated Mario's Deli II. With 65 years of combined knowledge and experience, Joe and Ray have teamed up and rebranded to create Joey C's Deli. Their menu features a wide variety of sub sandwiches, paninis, salads, pizzas, pastas, and other Chicago favorites.

"It's a pleasure to see Ray continue to grow his businesses here in Bensenville while also preserving the legacy of a favorite local eatery. I look forward to Joey C's success and wish them the best of luck here in Bensenville," said Village President Frank DeSimone.

About Bensenville: Bensenville is conveniently located just 20 miles west of downtown Chicago in DuPage County, adjacent to O'Hare International Airport, surrounded by major expressways, and boasts several public transportation options including a Metra commuter station. With plenty to offer both families and businesses like brand new schools, great parks, and special events year round, Bensenville really is the "Gateway to Opportunity."
