Barbell Fitness now open in Downtown Bensenville

Bensenville, IL – On Friday, April 12, 2019, a ribbon-cutting ceremony was held for Barbell Fitness located at 13 W. Main Street #6 in Bensenville. Owner Matt Klusek and Village President Frank DeSimone cut the ceremonial red ribbon to celebrate Barbell Fitness's new location in Bensenville while joined by family and friends, members of the Bensenville Chamber of Commerce, and Village staff.

Barbell Fitness is a workout facility whose professional fitness instructors and teachers pride themselves on the educational component of training. Business Partners Matt Klusek and Alex Jimenez have big plans as they aim for Barbell Fitness to become a household name for any individual looking for a positive lifestyle change. "We want you to think of us when thinking of strength training, great advice, education on exercise, recommendations to family and friends, as well as the satisfactory feeling of accomplishment upon the completion of a training program," said Klusek.

When searching for a location for their new facility, Klusek and Jimenez liked the diversity Bensenville had to offer. "What we liked the most about this location is the small town atmosphere as well as the exposure to people of all backgrounds, ages, and professions, who are interested in making a positive change in their lifestyles by participating in a private, one on one training environment," said Klusek. He commended Village staff by saying, "The experience with the village and all those associated with making this place open was great! Truly nice and knowledgeable staff, personnel, and individuals who are willing to help at every step."

"It's always a pleasure seeing business owners who have an overwhelming passion for what they do in their career. Congratulations to Matt and Alex for adding to the diversity of businesses located in downtown Bensenville and we wish you the best of luck in pursuing your passion," said Village President Frank DeSimone.
